AIG GROUP COMPANIES RECEIVE CERTIFICATION AFTER ESTABLISHMENT OF AIG HARMONY, A SPECIAL SUBSIDIARY COMPANY

TOKYO, August 2, 2017 – With the establishment of AIG Harmony KK (AIG Harmony) on May 1, 2017, each AIG Group company in Japan has received certification for expanding the scope of the Employment Rate System for Persons with Disabilities. The certification was granted on July 4 and the formal issuing of the certificate took place in a ceremony at the Shinagawa Public Employment Service Office on July 31, 2017.

At the ceremony, the head of the Shinagawa Public Employment Service Office handed out the certificate to representatives of the following companies: AIG Japan Holdings KK (AIG Japan), AIG Harmony, AIG Business Partners KK (AIG Business Partners), AIU Insurance Co., Ltd. (AIU) and The Fuji Fire and Marine Insurance Co., Ltd. (Fuji Fire Marine).

“The AIG Group truly values the diversity of perspectives that come from all places and people, and it is this diversity of perspectives that led to the establishment of AIG Harmony. Based on the activities of one of our employee volunteer groups and established in a bottom-up manner, AIG Harmony is a true reflection of the diversity and inclusion in our culture. With a goal of partnership and collaboration, the company will bring together employees with and without disabilities in a forward-looking work environment where we all learn from each other and contribute to the success of AIG,” said Naoki Nishida, President and CEO of AIG Harmony.

AIG Group companies and AIG Harmony will continue to promote the employment of persons with disabilities (PwDs) in Japan. Ultimately, the goal is to create an environment in which all employees, including those with disabilities, can actively pursue a fulfilling career.
