【About AIG group’s community activities in Toyama Prefecture】

AIG group companies have been actively engaged in the local community in Toyama since AIU Insurance Company opened a contact center there in 2004 and American Home Assurance Company opened a call center in 2005. After the opening of Fuji Fire and Marine Insurance Company’s contact center in the region in 2014, the AIG group began sponsoring the “Glorious Day” event, which American Home Assurance Company had sponsored from 2013 to 2015.

“At AIG, we are fully committed to making a difference in local communities all across Japan. Our employees are active and engaged citizens in their own communities, and our Toyama area employees’ involvement in the “Glorious Day” event is a great example of their efforts. Creating an opportunity for children with disabilities and their families to spend the day at Toyama Municipal Family Park is a great tradition started by American Home and now continuing under our AIG group banner,” said Robert L. Noddin, President and CEO, AIG Japan Holdings KK.
